Help from Medicare for those who help

Ask Medicare (medicare.gov/caregivers) is a new web resource that helps those who care for people with Medicare. It gives you vital information to help a spouse, family member or friend make wise decisions about choosing a drug plan, selecting a hospital, finding community care resources and care options and more. Ask Medicare is easy to use and there when you need it.

Visit medicare.gov/caregivers

Because the more you know, the more you can help.

Information to Help You Care for Others